

Community Right to Challenge: Expression of Interest

Before completing the form, please contact us to confirm which annual cycle is appropriate for your challenge. This will vary from case to case as existing contracts may be in place for the relevant service which may impact when HBC are able to consider your expression of interest:

Please ensure you understand what is required by reading the accompanying step by step guidance and other supporting information available on the HBC website (including definitions of a relevant body and information about excluded services):
www.hastings.gov.uk/righttchalenge

The Community Right to Challenge is just one way you can tell us about any ideas you may have about running HBC services. You can also contact the service directly, speak to your local councillor, or contact us using details on the HBC website.
