COUNCIL TAX DISCOUNT OR EXEMPTION: STUDENTS

When calculating the level of Council Tax payable, a person may be eligible either for a Discount or an Exemption because somebody in the house is a student or the household is solely occupied by student (s).

In order that I may consider your claim please read and complete the attached form (s) for each student and return to the above address.

If you have any query about the form, or require any assistance to complete it, please do not hesitate to contact my office on the above number.

Yours sincerely,

Revenue Service Manager

COUNCIL TAX DISCOUNT OR EXEMPTION: STUDENTS

Any dwelling which is partly occupied by students and school or college leavers and a person who is not a student will be eligible to a status discount where one of the following conditions (either A,B or C) applies.

Any dwelling which is occupied only by students and school or college leavers is exempt. This exemption applies where one of the following conditions (either A,B or C) applies.

A A FULL TIME COURSE OF EDUCATION

1.To qualify, the student must be enrolled with a University or Institution of Higher or Further Education for the purpose of attending a full time course of education.
(A full-time course is defined as one which lasts for a whole academic or calendar year during which time the student is required to attend for at least 24 weeks. Each week must on average consist of at least 21 hours of tuition or work experience).

2.The student must have begun the course and must not have reached a stage where he has completed it, abandoned it or is no longer permitted to attend it.

B A QUALIFYING COURSE OF EDUCATION

1.To qualify under this category the student must be under the age of 20, and undertaking a qualifying course of education which lasts for more than 3 calendar months, which is not a course of full-time education as defined in 'A' above.

2.The study time for the course must exceed 12 hours per week and the hours of study must normally be between 8am and 5pm.

Please Note:

i)Where the student is studying 2 or more qualifying courses at the same educational establishment, it is the total number of hours of study that is relevant when determining whether or not the exemption applies.

ii)Correspondence courses are excluded from this category of exemption.

iii)The course must not be undertaken in consequence of an offer of employment held by the student.

iv)This class does not apply to Youth Trainees.

C SCHOOL AND COLLEGE LEAVERS

To qualify under this category the student must be under the age of 20, and must have just finished a qualifying course of education or a full-time course of education which ended after 30 April of any given year. In this case they will be entitled to the exemption up to 31 October of the same year.

D TERM-TIME ADDRESS

If your term-time address is not this property then you must register as a student there and claim as a student here. However this leaves only one person over the age of 18 they can apply for a Single Person's Discount for the period of the course or until you return home.

APPLICATION FOR STUDENT DISCOUNT/EXEMPTION

If you are a full-time student at a university or college in the United Kingdom, you should complete this application form so that you may receive a council tax reduction or exemption.

You must also provide a student certificate for each student in the property. Ask the student's college or university for a Student Certificate for Council Tax Purposes.

Full-time means that your course will last for a year, during which time you will attend for at least 24 weeks with an average 21 hours of study each week.
