Appeals against decision

You can appeal to the Planning Inspectorate if you are unhappy with our decision to refuse permission for your proposed development. You can also appeal if the application has been granted with conditions that you are unhappy with. (Section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990)

If you wish to appeal our decision to refuse the display of an advertisement, you must do so within 8 weeks of the date of the planning decision notice.

How to Appeal

Appeals can be made online at www.gov.uk/appeal-planning-inspectorate. Alternatively you can contact The Planning Inspectorate to ask for forms to be sent in the post.

If you want a planning appeal to follow the inquiry procedure, you will need to tell us and the Planning Inspectorate. This must be done at least 10 days before your appeal submission. To tell us and the planning inspectorate, please email:

Planning Inspectorate: inquiry@planninginspectorate.gov.uk

Planning Services: planning@hastings.gov.uk

Further details about the inquiry procedure can be found at <https://www.gov.uk/government/news/inquiries-review-notification-of-inquiry-as-preferred-procedure-now-required-10-days-prior-to-appeal-submission>.

Please go to <https://www.gov.uk/appeal-planning-decision> for more information about how to appeal a planning decision.

Variations from Approved Plans

The works must be in accordance with the approved plans. If you decide that you want to change your approved plans you should check with us first to see if planning permission is required. You can do this using our pre-application advice service https://www.hastings.gov.uk/planning/advice/preapplication_advice/.
